Saturday: VA NorCal to Host 2018 Military Women's Appreciation Day

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – VA Northern California Health Care System (VA NorCal) will proudly host the 2018 Military Women's Appreciation Day this Saturday at American River College's Student Services Building. Credentialed media are welcome.

WHAT: Military Women's Appreciation Day: A Day of Camaraderie & Resilience Building
WHO: Northern California women Veterans and service members, VA NorCal Health Care System, Operation: Care and Comfort, The Soldiers Project, and the American River College Veterans Resource Center.
WHEN: 9-3 a.m.
WHERE: American River College Student Services Center, 4700 College Oak Drive, Sacramento, CA 95841

The event will include free breakfast and lunch, a Veteran and service member resource fair, a women Veterans art exhibit, holistic care services (e.g. massage), beauty services (e.g. makeup makeovers and glamour photo shoots), wellness and self-defense classes, and prize drawings.

The free event is in partnership with Operation: Care and Comfort, The Soldiers Project, and the American River College Veterans Resource Center. VA NorCal will provide free transportation to women Veterans and service members from across the Bay Area, Fairfield, Chico, and Redding, and expects more than 200 women to participate in the event.

Media interested in learning more about the event or VA NorCal should contact Will Martin, Chief of Public Affairs, at 916-843-9247 or William.Martin6@va.gov.
